DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Amendment filed February 3, 2004 is acknowledged.
2. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Drawings

3. The drawings were received on February 3, 2004. These drawings are unacceptable. The showing of the circuitry in figure 4 constitutes new matter.
4. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the "heating element embodied as an electrical resistor," "solid product pill," "container of a liquid product," and "electronic switch automatically operated by a light sensor" recited in claim 1 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

5. The amendment filed February 3, 2004 is objected to under 35 U.S.C. 132 because it introduces new matter into the disclosure. 35 U.S.C. 132 states that no amendment shall introduce new matter into the disclosure of the invention. The added material which is not supported by the original disclosure is as follows: the added paragraph at page 4, line 5; and new figure 4.

Applicant is required to cancel the new matter in the reply to this Office Action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

6. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

7. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The disclosure, as originally filed, does not support "...and is independent of time" recited in claim 1. Applicant recites "...and is independent of time" in hopes to write around Spector's timed relay 35. Applicant is trying to claim what his invention is not rather than what his invention is.

8. Claims 2 and 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. Claims 2 and 3 recite "predetermined value." The disclosure teaches no predetermined value of ambient light intensity.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

9. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Leonard et al. (5,937,140) in view of Spector (4,707,338).

Leonard et al. discloses an electrical diffuser comprising: heating element 55. Leonard et al. does not disclose a light sensor. Spector discloses an air freshener operated by light sensor 36. It would have been obvious to a person having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have provided a light sensor to the device of Leonard et al. as taught by Spector to activate the device with light.

Response to Arguments

10. Applicant's arguments filed February 3, 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues that his device operates continuously only dependent on ambient light intensity. Claim 1 recites "...so that the operation of the heating element depends on an ambient light intensity and is independent of time." Applicant's argument is not commensurate in scope with the claimed invention. In the device of Leonard in view of Spector, the heating element would operate (i.e., turn on) only dependent on the ambient light intensity. While the running duration would be dependent on the ambient light and the timed relay, applicant's recitation of "operation" is not specifically limited to duration.

Conclusion

11. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
